HAWK AND OBJECTIVITY TEAM TO DELIVER INNOVATIVE SOLUTIONS FOR THE INTELLIGENCE COMMUNITY

- Hawk Technical Solutions, LLC Focuses on Technical Integration Expertise using Objectivity/DB Object Database Platform -

Sunnyvale, Calif. (July 27, 2005) - - - Expanding upon significant momentum in the government sector, Objectivity, Inc., the leader in real-time data management solutions for complex inter-related data, today announces a new strategic partnership with Hawk Technical Solutions, LLC. Hawk Technical Solutions is a woman owned IT services company focusing on technical integration expertise within the intelligence community. This partnership brings together extensive domain knowledge in delivering innovative technical solutions to the security and intelligence community coupled with highly trained personnel who understand the obstacles and challenges of working in a security conscious environment.

Focus on the Security and Intelligence Community
The Objectivity and Hawk relationship is focused on bringing additional value to the security and intelligence community engaged in complex projects involving data fusion and monitoring, analyzing and responding. As a strategic partner to Objectivity, Hawk receives extensive product training and has access to technical and business information enhancing system or application design and programming assignments for their customers. The Hawk team members bring years of experience in delivering innovative technical solutions to the intelligence community. The entire team is specially equipped with the necessary government clearances to handle classified projects.

Ensuring ROI for Buy versus Build Decisions

"Objectivity provides our customers a unique ability to access and manage massive amounts of data through an object database that is highly scalable, very interoperable, and widely distributable. By partnering with technology market leaders like Objectivity, Hawk is able to ensure a favorable return on investment for our DoD customers to meet or exceed their mission needs" said Wendi Hawk, CEO of Hawk Technical Solutions, LLC.

"With more and more buy versus build decisions in the government acquisition strategy there is an increased need for highly skilled 'integration engineers' to ensure these products meet customer needs. Hawk is positioned to address those requirements," said John Metz, vice president and CTO of Hawk.

"Our partnership with Hawk Technical Solutions enhances Objectivity's government market reach to provide the most effective solution for finding the "needle in the haystack" in real-time knowledge management and data fusion applications for security and intelligence agencies," states Jay Jarrell president and CEO of Objectivity, Inc. "Hawk is uniquely positioned to provide security cleared talent making the Objectivity solution more available to this important community."
